

Cooperative Vocational Education Program

Warehousing

Title of Vocational Educational Program:

Warehousing.

Qualification to be Awarded in Georgian and English:

Secondary Vocational Qualification in Warehousing.

Programme aims:

The aim of the vocational education program is to prepare competitive personnel for warehouses who can work in a team; read and fill out warehouse documentation; receive goods in the warehouse; store goods; issue goods from the warehouse; record goods in the warehouse and control balances; organize loading/unloading of cargo and perform assigned duties in compliance with professional ethics, labor and safety norms. In addition, graduates will be equipped with professional and general/transferrable skills.

Admission Prerequisites:

- Complete general education;

Employment Field and Opportunities:

Employment opportunities include: in customs, commercial, automotive, supermarket and refrigerated warehouses, as well as in trading companies that own their own warehouses, as dispatchers, stock and warehouse workers, or cargo weighers.

Structure and Modules:

The vocational education standard includes 3 general modules, with a total of 9 credits, and 8 vocational modules with a total of 81 credits. To be awarded a qualification, a person must accumulate at least 90 credits, and the duration of study is 20 months.

Description of Qualification/Learning Outcomes:

The graduate can:

- Describe the organizational structure of the enterprise and warehouse operations;
- Explain legislation and safety standards related to warehouse operations;
- Receive, transport, and store goods in the warehouse;
- Collect and issue goods from the warehouse;
- Record goods in the warehouse.

Awarding Qualification:

To obtain a vocational qualification, a vocational student must accumulate credits from modules specified in the vocational education program.

Location of Vocational Program Implementation:

The program will be implemented at the Railway Transport College, JSC "Georgian Railways" and JSC "Goodwill".

